Please read these Website Terms of Use when using the public Music Vote Live (MVL) website.

1. Scope

These Website Terms apply to general access to and use of the public MVL website. Registered Listeners are additionally subject to the Listener Terms of Use; registered Bands or Artists are additionally subject to the Band or Artist Terms & Conditions. If specific terms conflict on a matter they expressly address, the more specific terms apply to that matter.

2. Permitted Use

You may browse and use the website for lawful personal or legitimate business purposes connected with MVL. You must not misuse the site, attempt unauthorised access, interfere with security, introduce malicious code, scrape or bulk-extract data without authority, reverse engineer protected functionality except where law permits, or use MVL material for unauthorised commercial replication.

3. Content and Information

MVL aims to keep public information useful and current but does not promise that all general website content will always be complete, current or error-free. Nothing on the public site creates a guarantee of radio play, chart position, voting outcome, live opportunity or commercial success.

4. Intellectual Property and Recording Music

MVL and its licensors retain rights in MVL names, branding, logos, software, databases, site design, original content and other protected material. Artist music, artwork and third-party material remain owned by their respective rightsholders.

Music available through MVL Radio is provided for listening. Access to MVL Radio does not give you permission to record, copy, download, reproduce, redistribute or otherwise use a song or broadcast unless you have the relevant permission or the use is otherwise permitted by law.

MVL does not give permission on behalf of a Band, Artist or other rightsholder to record or copy their songs. MVL will not provide such consent. If you wish to obtain a song, you should contact the relevant Band or Artist or, where available, use the official purchase link provided on that Band or Artist's MVL Bio/Profile page.

5. Purchasing Songs from Bands or Artists

Where a Band or Artist provides an authorised shop, website or other external purchase link on their MVL Bio/Profile page, MVL may make that link available so visitors can support the Band or Artist and purchase their music directly from the relevant external seller.

Unless MVL expressly states otherwise, any purchase made after following such a link is a transaction solely between you and the Band, Artist, retailer or other independent third-party seller. MVL is not the seller, does not process or receive payment for that purchase, receives no commission from the sale and is not a party to the sale or purchase agreement.

The relevant external seller is responsible for its products or services, including pricing, payment, delivery or download, quality, refunds, cancellations and customer service. Any dissatisfaction, complaint, refund request or claim arising from an external purchase should be directed to the relevant seller.

MVL is not responsible for the acts or omissions of an independent external seller or for products or services purchased from that seller. Nothing in these Website Terms excludes or limits any responsibility that MVL cannot lawfully exclude.

6. External Links

The website may contain links to Band or Artist websites, shops, social media pages, streaming services and other independent websites or services. These links are provided for convenience, information or to help visitors support Bands and Artists directly. The external operator controls its own content, availability, products, services, terms and privacy practices. A link from MVL does not, by itself, mean that MVL operates, endorses or accepts responsibility for the external service.

7. Availability and Liability

MVL may maintain, change, suspend or withdraw website functions where reasonably necessary. Nothing excludes liability that cannot lawfully be excluded. To the extent permitted by law, MVL is not responsible for unforeseeable losses or failures caused solely by matters outside its reasonable control.

8. Privacy and Cookies

Use of personal data is governed by the MVL Privacy Policy. Cookies and similar technologies are governed by the MVL Cookie Policy and relevant consent controls.

9. Changes to these Website Terms

MVL may update these Website Terms where reasonably necessary, including to reflect changes to the website, services, law or regulatory requirements. The current version and effective date will be displayed with the published Terms.

10. Law and Contact

These Website Terms are governed by the law of England and Wales, subject to mandatory consumer protections and jurisdiction rights that cannot lawfully be excluded. Contact Music Vote Live at info@musicvotelive.com.
